SCC Summer Closing (July & August)

SCC is now closed for the summer (we cannot get the building during these months) Our 2007-8 season will commence on the first Thursday after Labour Day, September 6, with our Annual General Meeting – doors open at 7:00 pm. Then our first tournament of the new season, the Fall Swiss, will start the following Thursday, September 13.

Canadian Closed – New Champion Is Nikolay Noritsyn !

This 30-player 9 round swiss (had to be over 2000 CFC or FIDE to play) took place in Kitchener from Aug. 1 – 6 (organizer – Hal Bond, CFC President, and team). After regular play, 3 of the 4 IM's playing, GTA junior Artem Samsonkin, Ron Livshits and Jean Hebert, and GTA junior Nikolay Noritsyn, were tied for first. (IM Thomas Roussel-Roozman had a disastrous start and withdrew early). This necessitated a tie-break play-off.

In the first match, Noritsyn faced Hebert. They tied the first 2 active games (30 min.). Then they tied the next 2 15 min. games. Then they tied the next 8 5-min+3sec. increment games. In the blitz games 9 & 10, Nikolay won both games. Thus he advanced to the second round.

In the other match, Samsonkin defeated Livshits 1:5 - .5. So he advanced to face Noritsyn.

In the first 10-min.+5sec. increment game, Noritsyn won. The second was drawn.

So Noritsyn became the new Canadian Champion. As well, he is the youngest Canadian Closed Champion ever, beating out Abe Yanofsky and Alexander Le Siege. (Note, however, since this tournament was not a zonal, IM Igor Zugic, last year 's Champion, who did not defend his title this year, still plays in the next step of the World Championship cycle, representing Canada, at the FIDE World Cup).

In regular play, one of the games that could have led to Samsonkin coming clear first, was his draw with Hebert. Samsonkin had a " winning " advantage near the end, but played inaccurately and ended with only a " clear " advantage when the draw was agreed. There was a rumour floating around during the playoffs, that Samsonkin had missed a mate when he agreed to this draw – this is not true. There never was any mate. Here is their game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Samsonkin almost didn't make it to the finals. He had to overcome a terrible deficit in his second tie-break game with Livshits to win Although I have not yet been able to confirm this (MonRoi has only the first part of the game), it was said that in Game 2 of their tie-break, Samsonkin was at one point down the exchange and 3 pawns, and came back to win the game and the match. We'll have to await the organizer's release of the games in pgn. to confirm this.

Here is Noritsyn's win over Hebert in the first match, 10th game, by which he moved into the finals (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

I understand that with this win, Noritsyn, who already has more IM norms than he needs, will push his FIDE rating, assisted by his recent Canadian Open good showing, over 2400 (his CFC rating is 2492) and will receive the FIDE IM title finally. (however, there is some confusion as to whether titles will be awarded as if this was a zonal). Congratulations Nikolay !! (Note: Michael Barron and Raja Panjwani may have obtained the FM title with their results.)

Canadian Women's Championship and Zonal – New Champion – Natalia Khoudgarian !

This 8-player round robin was held in Kitchener at the same time as the Closed. The winner, repeating as Women's Champion, was WIM Natalia Khoudgarian. She defeated WFM Dina Kagramanov in their 7th round game to come first (a draw would have been sufficient for her to win outright). This is the second year in a row Dina has come second. Their game was not recorded on MonRoi, and so we will have to await the future release of the pgn. games to see it.

Congratulations Natalia ! She will go on to represent Canada in the next phase of the Women's World Championship. Good luck.

Biel, Switzerland GM Tournament

This 10-player round robin tournament was held July 21 – Aug. 3. The winner, on tie-break play-off, was Magnus Carlsen (Norway) over Alexander Onischuk (USA). Here are the final results:

Edmonton International round up.

Well, the 2nd Edmonton International and Edmonton chess festival has now ended. It was lots of fun overall and I would like to thank everyone who helped me organize and direct the event. I don't want to leave anyone out but we all know and appreciate what you did!

I will post the final results now and the last day games will be coming a little bit later.

At the end GM Melik Khachiyan proved that he is a real monster and took the field apart with a 7.5/9 score.

Jesse Kraai was able to recover from a slow start and finish with 6.5/9.

John Donaldson has earned his 33rd IM norm as he cruised to a very nice 6/9 result finishing third.

GM Valeriy Aveskulov and IM Axel Bachmann didn't have very good tournaments and tied for 4th. GM Aveskulov had problems with Albertans and also lost badly against IM Donaldson, while IM Bachmann couldn't quite compete with the top guys even though he was probably the most convincing in beating the Albertans.

There was a two way tie for the top Albertan between Leaf Li and Greg Huber who each finished with 3.5/9. They both finished with a point against the three GMs, as Leaf drew GM Aveskulov in the last round. FM Yanayt had his IM hopes crushed early and finished with 3/9.

The last place was shared by Jeff Reeve and Dale Haessel with 2/9 each.

Canadian Amateur Championships

This was again held Aug. 3 –6, as part of the Kitchener Chess Festival, and was a 7-round Swiss in four sections (U 2200, U 2000, U 1700, U 1400). It attracted 78 participants. The winners were:

U 2200 – 6 pts. – Kyle Morrison

U 2000 – 6 pts. – Paul Leblanc

- special mention should be made that 2 SCC'ers, your editor, Bob Armstrong, and Randy Moysoski, finished in a 6-way tie for third.

U 1700 – 5 pts. – 1st/3rd – Avery Jones

Melissa Darbyson

Mark Brauer

U 1400 – 6 pts. – 1st/2nd – Okimi Peters

Leo Liu

Their were also 4-player club team and family team prizes. Unfortunately, SCC could only put in a three person team since all the SCC'ers (Bob Armstrong, Randy Moysoski, Oscar Villalobos, Mario Moran and Richard Douglas) were in the U 2000 section, except David Farrant (U 1700) and Nathan Farrant-Diaz (U 1400), and at least one player on the team had to be from a different section. And we could not conscript David or Nathan on the team as the fourth member, because they were playing for the family prize, and you could only play for one team prize. Fortunately David and Nathan shared 1st/2nd. The Mississauga Club won the club team prize, with Chess Academy (all juniors) second.

Here is my last round win against an A player, which left me tied 3rd/8th (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Canadian World Junior Chess Championship 50th Anniversary
(submitted by Erik Malmsten)

Held in Toronto August 2-19, 1957

“In a meeting in Toronto under the chairmanship of Bernard Freedman, FIDE Representative for Canada, preliminary plans were laid for organization of the world junior championship to be held there August 3-18 next year. Committee chairmen: R. Siemms, treasurer; A. Tuskis, publicity and public relations; A. Kaye, corresponding secretary; J. Huckle, tournament room, equipment; Lickels, etc; D. Katie, tournament director, assisted by six others including interpreters: H. Herbert, entertainment, A tentative goal of $1,500 has been set.

Invitations have been sent out to all countries affiliated with FIDE (International Chess Federation). Each is entitled to one representative under the age of 20. The organizing country pays transportation from the North American port of entry and provides hospitality and prizes.” Frank Anderson’s chess column in the Hamilton Spectator Dec. 8, 1956. This would be the first city in the Americas to host the event.

Bernard Freedman had a long history of chess organizing and philanthropy. In 1936, he brought 11-year-old prodigy Abe Yanofsky, from Winnipeg to the national championship in Toronto, in 1939 paid for the trip of Canada’s first Olympiad team, during the war he taught over 3,000 students in 27 schools, and in the 1940-50s paid for trips of many players to the U.S. Junior Championship.

The June 15, 1957 Toronto Daily Star chess column by Charles Crompton lists the committee as Chairman Bernard Freedman, J.B. MacDonald, J. Huckle, R. Sanderson, Ross Siemms, D. Katie, H. Loose, H. Eccles, M. Gottlieb, D. Dick and H. Herbs.

Freedman struggled to get funding of $250 from city council. $150 was authorized for the opening luncheon and a trophy. While Councillor Jean Newman tried for more, councillor Ford Brand would resign from the welcoming committee if it was any higher. But a 36 inch trophy itself would cost $125, Freedman said, “The board should be pressing money on me instead of me having to go in and beg... What the [chess] federation is doing for Toronto is worth $5,000.” The event costs $2,000 but the committee had only raised $1,200. Councillor Joseph Cornish was delegated by Mayor Nathan Phillips to extend a civic welcome to the players.

As host Canada was allowed two players: Peter Bates, 18, of Davenport Road and student of North Toronto C.I., and François (Gilles?) Jobin, 19, of Quebec City. Jobin had played in the Canadian Open the year before. Local junior Peter Bates wasn’t as strong as other recent juniors like IM Frank Anderson or Ross Siemms. Anderson was second on tie-breaks for the U.S. Junior Championship 1948. Siemms had won the U.S. Junior in 1954 and in the 1953 World Junior in Copenhagen finished 15th of 20 players. Montreal’s Lionel Joyner in the first World Junior in Coventry, Birmingham, in 1951 finished 13th of 18. David Grimshaw, 16-years-old, was the Ontario Junior Champion but didn’t qualify. In the last round he tried to defeat Jobin but agreed to a draw after 8 hours.

First Canadian Junior Championship

Quebec City, July 7-13, 1957

François Jobin	Quebec	6.0 - 1.0
Peter Bates	Toronto	5.5 - 1.5
Frank May	Vancouver	5.0 - 2.0
David Grimshaw	Toronto	4.0 - 3.0
Peter Ihssen	Winnipeg	3.0 - 4.0
Tom Carleton	Toronto	2.0 - 5.0
Loic Therien	Quebec	2.0 - 5.0
Lloyd Campbell	Sydney	0.5 - 6.5

William (Bill) Lombardy, 18-years-old, from New York City was known to the Canadian chess community as in the first Canadian Open in Montreal the year before he tied for first with GM Larry Evans, defeating Toronto's Frank Anderson and drawing Winnipeg's Abe Yanofsky. He had also just played on Board 1 for the U.S. in the International Students' Championship in Iceland.

Rodolfo (Tan) Cardoso, 19-years-old, and his second, Florencio Campomanes, Philippines top player, took $3,000 and two weeks to get here. Campomanes went to college in the U.S. and tied for second behind Lombardy in the 1954 New York State Championship. A second is useful for analyzing adjournments, as well as observing the other players' openings, but Cardoso lost four adjourned games. In the Olympiad in Moscow the year before he had the advantage but drew with Laslo Portisch and won the Silver Medal.

Ibrahim Munir Bhagat of Egypt only had to travel from the University of Texas, but arrived three days early.

Jorge Aldrete (Lobo) of Mexico was the youngest player at 17. Attempts were made by W.L.S. Tritest(?) of the local United Nations organization to billet players with fellow countrymen who now reside in Toronto.

The games were played in the auditorium in the Central YMCA on College Street, just west of Yonge Street. Jim Huckle had built the Central YMCA chess club up to a record 90 members. The format was a round-robin, everybody plays everybody else one game. First time control was 40 moves in 2-1/2 hours. The rounds starting time was 3 pm to 8 pm on weekends, 6 pm - 11 pm on weekdays. Adjournments were played the next morning. The Tournament Director was F.W. Watson. Admission to each session is $1, but spectators could buy a "season ticket" for $5, sent to Freedman on Jordan St..

The results were published daily in the three Toronto papers: Star, Globe & Mail, and Telegram. The Toronto Daily Star had detailed coverage by Ray Krznaric, not their chess columnist, who wrote about the openings and how the games went. George Berner, "Yugoslav Chess Master" wrote one article for the Globe & Mail. Ray was the Belgrade Champion in 1951 and would later be a strong player on the west coast known as Ray Kerr.

Opening ceremonies started on Saturday Aug. 2 at 12:30 followed by the first round. Vladimir Selimanov and his second Grandmaster (and International Arbiter) Igor Bondarevsky, arrived at 5:20 pm. Bondarevsky had visited Toronto in 1954 where he lost a game to Anderson, and was later Boris Spassky's coach. They were scheduled to leave July 29, but their visas didn't arrive until Aug. 1. SCC Goes to the Canadian Open

(second in a series of three articles)

SCC sent a strong contingent of 2 juniors and 10 adults to this year's Canadian Open in Ottawa. The players and their results are :

5.5 pts. – Junior Girl Yuanling Yuan

Your editor, Bob Armstrong (in a 5-way tie for 3rd in the U 1800)

Tom Muir (third place in the U 1600)

5 pts. – Junior Aman Hambleton

4.5 pts. – Maurice Smith (SCC Vice-President)

4 pts. – Petar Zlatanov

Josh Sherman

Oscar Villalobos

Phil Haley (former CFC President)

Doug Gillis

3.5 pts. – Michael Perez

Mario Moran-Venegas

A number of SCC alumni were also present: Wilf Ferner, Peter Bokhout, Josh Guo, Danny Aniag.

SCTCN&V asked each SCC member playing to provide us with their most interesting game. We published some games last Issue, there are some this Issue, and the last installment will be in our next Issue.

Maurice Smith won a tough positional battle in the game he submitted. Here it is (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):

Bob Armstrong – got to use a MonRoi device thanks to the loan from the OCA via Barry Thorvardson.

Tom Muir came 3rd in the U 1600 – congratulations Tom. Here is the game he submitted as the most interesting, a loss against an expert, Josh Guo, a former SCC'er, who tied for 2nd/6th in the U 2400 !. Here is his game (Annotations by Bob Armstrong, using Fritz):
